

LEFT - RIGHT (3.21)

glasba in besedilo: Klemen Teran / Ana Ugrinovič

We are standing on a street, and thinking how to part.
Still listening heart beat, we should start
So you walking to the left i'm going to the right
We can't be together, for all we do is fight

So don't tell me I'm the best Keep on lying to the rest.
But the dream it isn't you
Only i can make it true

Let's go under water,
and take love with us.
Let's go under ground,
and take hate with us.

I'm still runing to the right
But you turning around
You are calling my name
No it doesn't fill all right

Please don't beg me here to stay
We were truly yesterday
You to quiet you're to shy
I need a man who can be wild.

Let's go under water,
and take love with us.
Let's go under ground,
and take fear with us.
Let's wanish in the sky,
and take our souls with us.
Let's get firm with innocent and take souls with us.
